CONFIDENTIALITY, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY ASSIGNMENT AND MORAL RIGHTS AGREEMENT

Futovia Pte. Ltd. and Aaryan Gulia

This Agreement is made between Futovia Pte. Ltd., a private limited company incorporated in Singapore (company registration no. 202210487K), with its registered office at 10 Raeburn Park #02-08, Singapore 088702 ("Futovia"), and Aaryan Gulia, of the email address aaryan.gulia@gmail.com ("Personnel").

It is signed on the dates shown below and takes effect, and applies, from 13 October 2026 (the "Effective Date"), being the date on which Futovia first received confidential information from Aventedge Pty Ltd. The Parties confirm that Personnel has, since the Effective Date, held the information and created the work covered by this Agreement on the terms set out below, and record those terms in writing by signing it.

Background

A. Futovia has entered into a Services Agreement and Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement with Aventedge Pty Ltd (ABN 35 615 522 168) (the "Client"), signed through DocuSign and dated 30 October 2026 (the "Client Agreement"), under which Personnel is named as one of the Futovia personnel performing the services.

B. The Client Agreement requires Futovia to ensure that every person who performs the services or contributes to the work is bound by confidentiality obligations at least as protective as those in the Client Agreement, has assigned their intellectual property rights to Futovia, and has given a consent or waiver in respect of moral rights. This Agreement gives effect to those requirements.

1. Definitions

1.1 "Confidential Information" means all non-public information of Futovia or of any Futovia client (including the Client) that Personnel receives, accesses or observes in connection with work for Futovia, whether before or after the Effective Date, in any form and whether or not marked confidential, including business processes, workflows, staff and organisational information, customer, supplier and financial information, systems, data, source code, pricing, plans, know-how and trade secrets, and all Client Materials and Project Materials.

1.2 "Client Materials", "Project Materials", "Background IP" and "Intellectual Property Rights" have the meanings given in the Client Agreement, and apply equally to any other Futovia client engagement Personnel works on.

1.3 Confidential Information does not include information that Personnel can show was public through no fault of Personnel, was lawfully known to Personnel without a duty of confidence before receipt, was lawfully received from a third party free to disclose it, or was independently developed without use of the Confidential Information.

2. Confidentiality

2.1 Personnel will keep all Confidential Information in strict confidence, protect it with no less than reasonable care, use it only to perform work for Futovia, and not disclose it to anyone other than Futovia personnel who need to know it and are bound by equivalent obligations.

2.2 Personnel will not copy Confidential Information beyond what the work reasonably requires, and will store and handle it only in accounts, repositories and workspaces that Futovia or the relevant client owns or approves.

2.3 AI tools. Personnel will not enter, upload or process any client's Confidential Information in any artificial intelligence tool, model or service unless (a) the tool is used through a business or enterprise account Futovia controls or approves, (b) the provider is contractually bound not to use inputs or outputs to train or improve any model, and (c) the tool has been approved by the client in writing (for the Client, the tools listed in Schedule 2 of the Client Agreement). Client customer personal data will be anonymised or minimised first. Personnel will never use Confidential Information to train, fine-tune or evaluate any model.

2.4 Personnel will not use any client's Confidential Information to compete with that client, or to build any product or service for a third party, and will not publicise any client engagement without Futovia's consent.

2.5 If required by law to disclose Confidential Information, Personnel will, where legally permitted, notify Futovia promptly and disclose only what is legally required.

2.6 On Futovia's request, or when Personnel's work on an engagement ends, Personnel will return or destroy all Confidential Information, including copies in AI tools and chat histories, collaboration workspaces (including Notion), email and local devices, and confirm this in writing within 14 days.

2.7 These obligations continue for five (5) years after Personnel's work for Futovia ends, and indefinitely for personal information, Client Materials and any information that remains a trade secret.

3. Intellectual Property

3.1 Personnel assigns to Futovia, with effect from creation (including for work created on or after the Effective Date and before signature), all right, title and interest, including all Intellectual Property Rights and all future copyright, in all Project Materials and in everything else Personnel creates, alone or with others, in performing work for Futovia or its clients, so that Futovia can assign them to the relevant client.

3.2 To the extent the law allows, Personnel irrevocably consents to, and waives, any moral rights in those works, so that Futovia, the relevant client and their successors may use, modify and adapt them without attribution or further consent.

3.3 Personnel will not incorporate any third-party or copyleft-licensed material into Project Materials except as permitted under the relevant client agreement, and will tell Futovia about every third-party or open-source component used.

3.4 During and after this Agreement, Personnel will sign any document and do anything reasonably needed to confirm or perfect the assignments in this Section 3.

4. General

4.1 Personnel acknowledges that a breach may cause harm that money alone cannot remedy, and that Futovia (and the relevant client) may seek injunctive relief in addition to any other remedy. Each Futovia client whose Confidential Information or Project Materials are concerned may enforce Sections 2 and 3 directly.

4.2 This Agreement is governed by the laws of Singapore, and the courts of Singapore have non-exclusive jurisdiction. It may be signed electronically (including through DocuSign) and in counterparts.
